Re: Local Family Law Form – Income Withholding Order

Dear Chief Justice Canady:

In accordance with the requirements of Florida Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.750, the form and instruction listed below has been approved by me for use in the Sixth Judicial Circuit:

Income Withholding for Support Order and Addendum
Instructions for Income Withholding for Support Order and Addendum

The need for this form arose because the United States Department of Health and Human Services issued an Action Transmittal AT-11-05 in accordance with their authority under the Social Security Act. Effective May 31, 2012, employers are required to reject income withholding orders received after that date if they are not in compliance with OMB Form 0970-0154. As pointed out by The Florida Bar Family Law Rules Committee in SC12-618, the OMB form does not include provisions required under Florida law. In order to have a form in place by the effective date of this new requirement and have it available for the local Bar members, hearing officers, magistrates, and judges, the Sixth Circuit has adopted the OMB form plus the additional provisions required by state law into one locally approved form.

Sincerely,

Anthony Rondolino
Acting Chief Judge
