MEMORANDUM

TO: All attorneys desiring appointment or reappointment for service to the Sixth Judicial Circuit Registry of Court Appointed Attorneys

FROM: Anthony Rondolino, Chief Judge

SUBJECT: Solicitation for Court Appointed Attorneys in Pasco and Pinellas Counties

The Sixth Judicial Circuit is seeking attorneys to serve the Court-Appointed Attorney Registry, on all lists and in all geographic locations in Pasco and Pinellas Counties. Selection of attorneys is based on a completed application and résumé. Not all attorneys may be selected. The number of attorneys selected is based upon the Court's needs and may be adjusted to maintain proficiency of service to defendants.

CURRENT COURT-APPOINTED ATTORNEYS MUST APPLY FOR REAPPOINTMENT.

The Registry appointment is effective July 1, 2019. Please see Administrative Order 2016-022 for information regarding service lists, standards and qualifications, and case types on each service list. Administrative Orders relevant to court-appointed attorneys may be found on the Court's website at www.jud6.org/LegalCommunity/LegalPractice/AOSAndRules/aos/SubjectAO/Appattys/Appatty.html. Registry agreements are processed by Justice Administrative Commission (JAC). Additional information on JAC agreements may be found at www.justiceadmin.org/.

The court appointed attorney application is available on the Court's website at www.jud6.org/LegalCommunity/CourtAppointedAttorneys.html. All applications must be received in their entirety, by Court Counsel's office by the deadline in order to be considered for appointment.
