

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Please take the time to read the new sections addressing Covid-19 and Court Hearings / Operations as this section has added new practice preferences to address the need to have virtually all hearings conducted via telephone or ZOOM due to the ongoing pandemic. The provisions in this section will be updated as needed, and all provisions of this section will control over and supersede any contradictory provisions elsewhere in the practice preferences. We are all dealing with a fluid, changing situation, and these preferences are a step towards insuring continued access to the Courts for families in need of same. If you have ideas or suggestions to help improve the process, please do not hesitate to share them. Thank you! – Judge Frederick L. Pollack, Wednesday, April 29, 2020

General Information

315 Court Street, Room 473
Clearwater, FL 33756

Office Hours Monday – Friday, 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.
The office is closed for lunch from NOON until 1:00 p.m.

It is expected that all parties and attorneys will adhere to local Administrative Order No.: 2015-052 PA/PI-CIR re: Professionalism Committee and Standards of Professional Courtesy – with self-represented parties afforded the same professional courtesies as attorneys.

All lawyers are expected to read and follow the Florida Bar Family Section’s recently updated "Bounds of Advocacy" that can be found through this link, or the www.familylawfla.org website.

COVID-19 and Court Hearings / Operations:

Due to the need to expedite the publishing of these revised preferences to address the COVID-19 pandemic, the specifics set forth in this COVID-19 and Court Hearings / Operations section will control over any competing/contradictory provision found otherwise in these preferences, and only this section will be updated by the Court during the pandemic for ease of reference.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the only “in person” hearings being held in the Family Law Division of the Sixth Judicial Circuit Court in and for Pinellas County, Florida are hearings involving the immediate safety of a person, such as domestic violence return hearings. Any such hearings will be held only at the Pinellas County Justice Complex located on 49th Street, and will NOT be conducted at the downtown Clearwater Courthouse on Court Street. Persons may NOT attend a hearing in person at the Courthouse absent express written order directing same. No proceedings or other court events other than essential proceedings and proceedings critical to the state of emergency or the public health emergency shall be conducted through in-person hearings through at least May 29, 2020 (as of the writing of these updated preferences – though the date may be extended while the pandemic continues to impact public health and court operations) pursuant to local administrative orders and AOS20-23 issued by the Florida Supreme Court.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

In order to keep continued access to the Courts in the interim, hearings in Family Law Division Section 14 will be held primarily through either Zoom Video Conferencing or via telephonic hearings. Zoom is preferred, whenever possible. Accordingly, the use of block-calendaring, mass-calendaring, and other similar scheduling is being temporary suspended in Section 14 and all matters will be special set for hearings. Additional times will be opened up on JAWS accordingly.

When you are coordinating your hearings, please inform the Court, through the Judicial Assistant, if you are requesting the hearing via Zoom or via phone conference. If the hearing will be via Zoom, the Judicial Assistant will provide a Meeting ID and password to include in the notice. If the hearing will be only via telephone, the Judicial Assistant will provide call-in information, including a conference call line (if necessary).

If the proceeding is one in which the court is required to create a record, the Court will have the digital court reporter enabled. For any other proceedings, it is the responsibility of a party desiring a formal record to obtain and provide a court reporter to attend in the manner set forth above. No participant other than the Court is authorized to record the proceeding. Use of any recording of this proceeding by anyone other than the Court to prepare official transcripts is prohibited. Any recording other than what is made by the Court is not the official record and may not be used in future trial or appellate proceedings.

Parenting classes:

Effective immediately, any and all persons required to take a 4-hour parent education and family stabilization course pursuant to § 61.21, Fla. Stat., may attend the parenting class online or via distance learning without need of any motion seeking, or order granting, permission to do so.

Avoiding the need for a notary:

Pursuant to the administrative orders currently in effect, the Court is able to swear in any witnesses (provided the witness is in Florida or consents to be sworn in Florida) provided the witness can be “positively identified.” Such positive identification can be achieved from a representing attorney, sufficiently familiar with the witness, averring to the witness’s identity, or by providing the Court sufficient evidence to confirm the witnesses’ identity (such as having a witness appearing by video show his/her driver’s license to the camera upon request during a Zoom hearing).

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Documents which otherwise would have been executed under oath in the presence of a notary may generally be done by simple written declaration, provided the signature block adheres to the requirements of § 92.525(2), Fla. Stat. which provides: “Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing [document] and that the facts stated in it are true,” followed by the signature of the person making the declaration, except when a verification on information or belief is permitted by law, in which case the words “to the best of my knowledge and belief” may be added. The written declaration shall be printed or typed at the end of or immediately below the document being verified and above the signature of the person making the declaration.

Initial Injunction Return Hearings for May & June, 2020:

Presently all initial injunction return hearings for the months of May and June, 2020 are expected to be conducted at the Pinellas County Justice Complex, 14250 49th St N., Courtroom 1, Clearwater, FL 33762.

Although parties to such a case may personally appear for the initial return hearing (and bring witnesses and evidence with them), they have the option of appearing telephonically should they desire, by notifying the 6th Circuit’s Domestic Violence Office in Pinellas County via e-mail at dvevidence@jud6.org. It is important that you leave your telephone number. When your case is scheduled for hearing you will be called at the telephone number you provide. You will probably be called sometime later than the actual time set in your notice, however, please be patient - you will be called.

If you opt to appear telephonically, any other evidence you intend to present at the return hearing, such as emails, texting correspondence, photographs, police reports, etc., you will need to email to our DV office at least two (2) days prior to the hearing. Any questions, please contact the 6th Circuit’s Domestic Violence Office at dvevidence@jud6.org or by phone (727) 582-7567.

The Family Law Division judges are currently rotating coverage of the initial injunction return hearings and Judge Pollack is currently slated to handle return hearings at CJC on May 8, 18, and 28; and June 5, 11, 18, and 26.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Participants should adhere to the following guidelines for Zoom hearings:

A. This is not a meeting. This is a court hearing. Dress and behave as if you were attending court in person. Pay attention to the time, as there are likely other hearings following yours and the hearing will need to conclude on time.

B. At the start of the hearing all participants will be in a virtual waiting room, and the parties, counsel, and any court reporter, will be admitted in the virtual hearing by the presiding judge upon the start of the hearing.

C. Please “rename” yourself on Zoom to show your actual name, so you can be readily identified by others for your hearing.

D. Any witnesses will be left in the waiting room until such time as they are “called” to testify, at which point they will be admitted to the virtual hearing room.

E. If at any point in a hearing an attorney needs to confer with his/her client separately, they may advise the Court and the presiding judge (if appropriate) will open a “breakout room” and assign the attorney and party to the breakout room for them to have their conversation outside of the presence of the Court and other participants. Similarly, if counsel for all parties need/want to speak together with the Judge without the parties present, they may make such a request and (if appropriate) the Court will open a “breakout room” for that conversation to occur, akin to how counsel may meet with a Judge in chambers prior to a traditional in-person hearing.

F. Parties will be able to use the “chat” feature to communicate directly with their counsel – but be sure to select only the person to whom you wish to chat, or else you will risk sharing your chat with all participants – including the other side and the Judge.

G. The same rules which apply to a hearing in person before the Court, also apply to a video hearing through Zoom.

H. No minor children are permitted to attend, or be present in the room where any participant is attending, the virtual hearing via Zoom. Persons with minor children of the action in the same building where the participant is appearing should take all reasonable steps to insure the minor children are not exposed to the proceedings. Participants may wish to use earbuds or headphones to assist in shielding the children from the litigation.

I. When speaking, remember to look directly at the webcam, not at the screen.

J. Position the camera at your eye level or slightly above eye level, and be mindful of what is behind you as everyone participating in the hearing will be able to see.

K. Check the lighting. Light from a window behind you might blind the camera, making you look dark. Light above you in the center of a room might also cast shadows. Ideally, position a lamp, or sit facing a window, where light is directly on your face.

L. Participants should speak one at a time and pause prior to speaking in case there is any audio/video lag for any other participant(s).

M. Participants are encouraged to mute themselves when not speaking in order to avoid any potential background noise.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

N. When a participant is speaking to another specific participant, s/he must address that participant by name each time.

O. If you will be providing corroborative proof of your Florida residency for a dissolution of marriage, to satisfy the requirement of § 61.052(2), Fla. Stat., you may: (1) file a copy of your Florida Driver's License, Florida ID Card, or Florida Voter Registration Card with your name and issue date legible, and redact all other information on the Card; (2) show one of these items to the camera (close up, upon request) during the hearing; or (3) file an affidavit of corroborating witness.

P. You may ask to show a witness a documentary exhibit which has been timely provided, in advance, to the court (in the manner provided for herein below), and/or the Court will "share a screen" to enable all persons attending via video to see the exhibit during the inquiry.

Q. If a party/attorney has an objection, they should state "objection" in a loud, clear voice, followed by a two or three word statement of the objection, and the other speaker should pause and allow the court to address the objection before continuing.

R. If you have a non-documentary exhibit – such as an audio or video file – upon the conclusion of the hearing it is the responsibility of the party/attorney presenting such audio/video file at the hearing to file with the Clerk of the Court some memory device (DVD, CD-Rom, flash-drive, etc.) with a copy of the file presented at the hearing, along with a certification that the audio/video file which has been filed with the Clerk is a copy of the same file presented at the hearing.

S. It is the responsibility of counsel, prior to the scheduled hearing, to insure not only the attorney, but the attorney's client(s) and any witness(es) for their client: (1) have access to Zoom; (2) have access to the exhibits for which they will be testifying; and (3) are familiar with the use of Zoom.

T. If the proceeding is one in which the court is required to create a record, the Court will have the digital court reporter enabled. For any other proceedings, it is the responsibility of a party desiring a formal record to obtain and provide a court reporter to attend in the manner set forth above. No participant other than the Court is authorized to record the proceeding. Use of any recording of this proceeding by anyone other than the Court to prepare official transcripts is prohibited. Any recording other than what is made by the Court is not the official record and may not be used in future trial or appellate proceedings.

How to Exchange Evidence for Any Virtual Hearing:

A party may elect to exchange evidence for any virtual hearing in one of the following three methods: (1) via e-mail; (2) by pre-filing exhibits through the State of Florida e-filing portal and providing an index to the Court for use at the hearing; or (3) by paper exchange.

E-MAIL EXCHANGE: (The preferred method for Section 14)

At least three (3) days before the hearing each side should send an e-mail to all parties, copying section14@jud6.org with the exhibits they anticipate relying upon at the hearing. The documentary exhibits should be in .pdf formatting, and titled in the following general format: "H's Ex 1 – Financial Affidavit"; "H's Ex 2 – Paystub"; etc. It is up to the parties/sender if they use H & W for Husband and Wife; P & R for Petitioner and Respondent; F & M for Father and Mother, etc. Each document should be its own separate file, and not combined into a singular large file.

All parties and attorneys must be copied on each of these two e-mails, which are to be exchanged at least three (3) days prior to the hearing itself so counsel for each party can verify with their respective client (if an attorney is involved) that the party is able to open the documents, etc., and be able to view same for the hearing.

Any witnesses must provided an e-mail with the documents that witness will need for testifying at the hearing, in the same way and subject to the same three (3) days prior to hearing deadline.

This three (3) day advance window allows the attorney/party/witness an opportunity to resolve any issues with the opening/viewing before the hearing time. At the hearing itself, upon a party moving a document into evidence the Court will print out the identified exhibit, stamp it into evidence (if appropriate) and provide same to the Clerk in the traditional fashion.

As of April 29, 2020 it is now acceptable for the e-mail contain a link to a Dropbox (or similar) account, provided the Court (nor any other person needing to access same) will NOT need to create an account to access same. The direct link in the e-mail must afford ready access to the documents without additional hurdles, nor creating record retention issues for the Court.

As of April 29, 2020 the Court will also be able to access (play) non-documentary evidence, such as an audio or video recording, in the same method. However, upon completion of the hearing, it is the responsibility of the party/attorney seeking to publish the audio/video file into evidence to file with the Clerk of the Court some memory device (DVD, CD-Rom, flash-drive, etc.) with a copy of the file presented at the hearing, along with a certification that the audio/video file which has been filed with the Clerk is a copy of the same file presented at the hearing.

For ease of tracking, the Court requests each side create an index of the exhibits they are offering into evidence (think a “Table of Contents” type document) listing each item with specificity, with space for identification, and notation for admitted/excluded, for example:

Ex. No.	Exhibit Title/Description	Identified	Admitted
H-1	Husband’s Financial Affidavit	_____	_____
H-2	Husband’s 2019 W-2	_____	_____

PRE-FILING THROUGH THE STATE E-FILING PORTAL:

(Workable – but certainly has issues and some serious potential pitfalls)

Any party may pre-file the evidence for a hearing with the Clerk of the Court, via e-filing the documents through the State of Florida E-filing Portal at <https://www.myfloridacourtaccess.com/index.html> (to e-file you must open a free account with the Clerk, and there are instructions on the portal website, including Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)s, and other helpful information for that process). However, parties are encouraged to remember that once filed the document becomes part of a public record, even if it is not ever moved into evidence at the hearing, and it cannot simply be removed from public viewing. As Family Law cases involve a lot of personal information persons should give careful, considered thought before pre-filing documents containing such information – and ANY document filed should have sensitive information in the document redacted in compliance with Rule 2.425, Fla. R. Jud. Admin.

Parties utilizing this method must be certain: (1) to file the documents at least five (5) days prior to the hearing to insure the documents are received and processed by the

Clerk prior to the hearing, as any errors in filing may cause the filing to be rejected or moved to the “correction queue” where they will not be viewable by the Court at the hearing; (2) to physically or electronically sign (by including /s/ before their name) on Each exhibit/document filed with the Clerk, and including the case number on each document to be filed; (3) to create an index of exhibits including the Clerk’s Docketing Date and Docket Entry # in the index, to be provided to the Court and all parties via e-mail at least 3 days prior to the hearing.

Please note this method can be very complicated and it is the responsibility of any party using this method to comply with all requirements of the E-filing Portal and the Clerk of the Court in electing to file documents in this manner. At the hearing the Court will print out the Index provided by the party and note which of the exhibits were successfully moved into evidence, and will remit that form to the Clerk to preserve the record. All documents pre-filed will remain in the file and will not be excluded from the public file merely because the document was not actually moved into the record evidence.

PAPER EXCHANGE:

If you are electing to exchange evidence entirely by paper, then you may prepare your case in the traditional fashion, with a binder of exhibits prepared and provided to all participants in advance of the hearing. Parties wishing to use such paper evidence are responsible for insuring their binder is provided to the Court and ALL parties at least 5 days prior to the hearing. It is not merely sufficient to mail/send the binder to the other side 5 days before the hearing, it must be received at least 5 days before the hearing. Documents not timely exchanged will not be considered by the Court at the hearing. Please note, due to COVID-19 pandemic concerns, paper exchange is NOT preferred by the Court as it offers the greatest potential for a party, court or clerk employee, or other person risking exposure to any unknown contaminants. Accordingly such paper exchange should be used as a method of last resort only.

End of Additional COVID-19 and Court Hearings / Operations Section

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Courtroom Conduct and Behavior: All courtroom proceedings shall be conducted with dignity, decorum, courtesy and civility. In an effort to insure same, the parties (and counsel) should abide by the following guidelines to assist you in meeting appropriate standards of conduct when you appear in court:

1. Dress appropriately. Court business is important. Show respect for the court by dressing appropriately and wearing clean clothes. Coats, ties, suits and dresses are welcome but not required by the parties. Shorts, t-shirts, tank or halter tops, undershirts (as outerwear), and hats are not appropriate and should not be worn to court.
2. Be truthful in all statements that you make to the court. False statements under oath constitute perjury which is a criminal offense.
3. Be courteous. Other than to make appropriate objections, do not interrupt anyone whom is speaking. If you are representing yourself and you have an objection to something a witness says, merely say "Objection" and the court will allow you to state the nature/basis of your objection.
4. A court proceeding is not a free-for-all where anyone can say whatever they want whenever they feel like it. A party whom is called as a witness must answer only the question asked and may not volunteer information or make argument while testifying. Do NOT interrupt a Judge when s/he is speaking. Interruptions will not be tolerated and may be sanctioned by the Court. Do not start an argument with, or threaten, anyone.
5. Treat all court personnel with respect, including bailiffs, judicial assistants, clerks, court investigators, judges, general magistrates, and hearing officers.
6. Do not make faces or gestures at the opposing party, his/her attorney, witnesses, or the judge while in the courtroom. The manner in which you conduct yourself will likely impact the way in which you are perceived by the court and may affect the outcome of your hearing/case.
7. Do not bring children to the courthouse (except in adoption cases), unless the court has so ordered. Pursuant to Rule 12.407, Fla. Fam. L. R. P. no minor child(ren) shall be deposed or brought to court without prior order of the court.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

8. Be aware that witnesses you bring to court are not usually permitted to remain in the courtroom while the case is being hearing, until that witness has completed their testimony before the court.

9. Bring at least four (4) copies of any documents (including photographs) that you intend to offer into evidence to the hearing, as well as any case law upon which you are relying. All documents should be pre-marked with the case number, and a space for the judge to admit the document into evidence. All “sensitive” information should be redacted per the requirements of Rule 2.425, Fla. R. Jud. Admin.

10. A “self-represented” party (also known as a “pro se” litigant, or “a party without a lawyer”) should be afforded the same courtesies by an attorney as would be given to another attorney in scheduling hearings, depositions, and other matters, as well as in the review of any proposed order(s) prior to submission to the Court whenever possible. By that same token, a “self-represented” party is not entitled to special treatment or privileges and must follow the same Rules of Procedure and ethical regulations that govern lawyers in their practice in Section 14.

Digital Recording / Court Reporters: A digital court reporter is only provided by the Court for injunction hearings (domestic violence, dating violence, sexual violence, repeat violence, and/or stalking). The Court does not provide a court reporter or digital recording for any other proceeding and it is the responsibility of the party desiring such reporting to arrange for a Court Reporter to be present for whatever hearing they believe a Court Reporter is necessary, and to be responsible for the payment for the court reporter’s services (subject to later reallocation by the court if an appropriate motion seeking same is filed, set for hearing and ruled upon by the court). A list of Court approved court reporters, as well as information on how to obtain a transcript from a digitally recorded proceeding can be found on the left side of the www.jud6.org website under “Court Reporting”

E-service (service by e-mail) on a self-represented party: Attorneys are reminded that while a self-represented party may provide an opposing counsel with an e-mail address for communication and coordination of scheduling matters, unless the self-represented party affirmatively “opts in” to the use of Service by Electronic Mail (“e-mail”) pursuant to Rule 2.516(b)(1)(C), Fla. R. Jud. Admin., that certifying service of any filing with the Court (including Notices of Hearing, Motions, etc.,) upon the self-represented party merely via e-mail alone will not suffice and service upon the self-represented party must be made in accordance with Rule 2.516(b)(2), Fla. R. Jud. Admin.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

If you do not have a lawyer: Please read these preferences carefully as they are intended to answer many basic questions and inform you on how (and when) to contact the Judge's office to schedule hearings, and how your case will be handled in this section.

The Judicial Assistant CANNOT answer your legal questions, and will not explain your situation to the Judge. Your opportunity to speak to the Judge happens in Court only. Although not expected to be as skilled and knowledgeable as lawyers, all "self-represented" parties (also known as "pro se" litigants) are nevertheless subject to all laws and Rules of Court procedure that apply to a lawyer. Judges, and their assistants, are forbidden from giving any advice or help to unrepresented parties. Judges, and their assistants, must remain neutral and impartial. A self-represented party is authorized to contact the Judge's office in the same manner as an attorney's office as set forth in these preferences. Personal visits to the Judge's office are discouraged as it disrupts the working routine in the office, leads to concerns about ex parte communications, and causes an increased burden upon courthouse security.

The Clerk of Court has a Self Help Program for self-represented litigants in the Clearwater Courthouse, phone (727) 464-5150, 315 Court Street, Clearwater, FL 33756. The program staff are not the lawyer for the self-represented party, nor are they legal advisors or secretarial services for the self-represented party.

Gulfcoast Legal Services can be reached at (727) 443-0657 in Clearwater and (727) 821-0726 in St. Petersburg.

Bay Area Legal Services is available at (800) 625-2257.

Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure: Since March 16, 2017 stand-alone Family Law rules have been in effect, which no longer refer back to the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Parties appearing in Section 14 should be familiar with the governing Family Law Rules of Procedure which may be found here: Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Florida Rules of Judicial Administration: In addition to the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure, numerous matters – such as how an attorney appears or withdraws from a case, how service (or e-service) is effected, what information is “sensitive” or “confidential” and must be redacted (or is permitted to be filed with the Court) – are addressed in the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration so parties (and Counsel) appearing in Section 14 should be familiar with these rules.

Family Law Forms: The Florida Supreme Court has approved numerous forms for use in Family Law proceedings, which may be purchased through the Clerk of the Court, or downloaded at no cost from the State Court website: <http://www.flcourts.org/resources-and-services/court-improvement/problem-solving-courts/family-courts/family-law-forms.stml>. In addition, the Sixth Judicial Circuit has a number of Locally Approved Individual Forms which may be found on the www.jud6.org website under “Representing Yourself in Court”

Florida Statutes: All parties, and counsel, appearing in Section 14 should be familiar with whatever provision(s) of the Florida Statutes which pertain to your case.

Mediation: Pursuant to local Administrative Order No.: 2011-006 PA/PI-CIR all post judgment matters and temporary support matters are automatically referred to mediation prior to a hearing on the matter. In addition in Section 14, ALL matters – whether initial, supplemental, temporary or final - including all issues seeking to establish and/or modify parental responsibility, time-sharing and/or support issues (other than actions only seeking enforcement/contempt) shall be referred to and attend mediation to attempt to resolve the disputed issue without need of court intervention before hearing time will be given upon the pending matter/motion.

If the opposing party has not yet filed their required Financial Affidavit with the court, the party requesting a referral for mediation may complete and file an Affidavit for Establishing Mediation Fees to assist in determining if the parties qualify for assignment of a mediator at a reduced cost through the Circuit’s Family Mediation Services program.

The following hearings may be scheduled without prior mediation: civil contempt or enforcement of support; discovery related issues (seeking to compel production, objections to discovery/interrogatories, etc.); motions directed to the pleadings (seeking to amend, strike, default, dismiss, set aside, etc.); uncontested matters (name change, dissolution, etc.); and where the Court has entered an order allowing an exception based upon a hardship, emergency or other exigent circumstances pursuant to a written motion filed with the Court.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Notice of Final Disposition: It is the responsibility of the party providing the proposed order/final judgment (or the moving party if the Court is drafting the order/final judgment) to draft and file the Notice of Final Disposition with the Clerk of the Court upon entry of the order/final judgment disposing of the matters pending before the Court.

Parenting Class: In all cases involving the initial establishment/determination of Parental Responsibility and Timesharing of minor children, the parties are each required to attend a 4-hour Parenting Class and file a certificate of completion of the course with the Clerk of the Court prior to the entry of the Final Judgment. Pursuant to § 61.21(5), Fla. Stat. all parties are required to complete the parenting class as expeditiously as possible, and unless excused by the Court the Petitioner must complete the course within 45 days after the filing of the initial petition and the Respondent must complete the course within 45 days of receiving service of process of the initial petition (or 45 days of adjudication of paternity).

~~Unless permitted by Court order rendered after the filing of an appropriate motion, each party is required to attend the course in person.~~ A list of providers of the Required Courses for Parents may be found through this link, or on the www.jud6.org website under “Self Representation”

Proposed Orders: Attorneys should upload ALL agreed upon Orders on JAWS in .pdf format in the Work Queue for the Judge’s signature. It is the responsibility of the attorney uploading the order for entry to review and ensure that all other parties to the case entitled to receive a copy of the order are affiliated with the case on JAWS such that the electronically conformed order will be sent to all parties AND if the opposing party is not represented by an attorney and has not otherwise consented to receive the order solely by e-mail, then the attorney uploading the proposed order must either:

- (1) Serve a copy of the electronically conformed order upon the self-represented party in accordance with Rule 2.516(b)(2), Fla. R. Jud. Admin. within one (1) business day of rendition of the electronically conformed order, and to file a “Certificate of Service” with the Clerk (or similar document) detailing how and when a copy of the electronically conformed order has been sent to the self-represented party; OR
- (2) Reflect that the order is being sent to the self-represented party by e-mail though JAWS and via regular U.S. Mail (including the address for the party to receive the mail) and provide the Court prior to uploading the order on JAWS with appropriately addressed and stamped envelope(s) for distribution to all parties who will be receiving the order by U.S. Mail.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

For specific information about uploading an agreed upon order in JAWS, please see that section of these preferences for more information.

If the form/substance of an order is not agreed upon, then it may not be uploaded on JAWS for consideration. Instead the proposed order should be submitted to the Court in WORD formatting via e-mail to Section14@jud6.org, so that the Judge may adjust the language of the order (as discussed further in these preferences below) and ultimately render the order for distribution on JAWS.

Submission of proposed orders by paper / hard copies by attorneys is discouraged, and may lead to delayed consideration and/or entry of the proposed order.

Self-represented parties may submit agreed upon orders (where all parties have agreed to both the form and substance of the order – ideally demonstrated by having each party’s signature reflected on the agreed upon order) by either:

- (1) IF THE AGREED UPON ORDER REFLECTS ALL PARTIES AGREE TO RECEIVE ELECTRONICALLY CONFORMED COPIES BY E-MAIL, INCLUDING AN E-MAIL ADDRESS FOR EACH PARTY, WITH NO COPIES SENT BY U.S. MAIL: Scanning and sending a .pdf copy of the agreed upon order to the Judge’s office by e-mail to Section14@jud6.org (making sure to copy all parties to the case on the e-mail AND include a statement in the e-mail that you are remitting an agreed upon order for entry by the Court). The Court will then affiliate the e-mail addresses with the parties on JAWS and will sign and issues the order through JAWS so the parties will receive electronically conformed copies only; OR
- (2) In paper form, by regular U.S. Mail, with an appropriate cover letter detailing all parties agreement to the proposed order, with sufficient stamped and properly addressed envelopes for distribution of the conformed copies by U.S. Mail

All proposed orders should adhere to the following guidelines:

1. All proposed orders should be accompanied by a cover letter indicating if the parties are in agreement to the form and substance of the proposed order. The Court DOES NOT hold orders pending objections so the cover letter must indicate when and how the proposed order was sent to the opposing party (or counsel if represented) for review and either indicate the opposing party’s agreement to the proposed order as written, the objections relayed by the opposing party (as set forth more in-depth below), or that at least five (5) days have passed since the proposed order was sent to the opposing party and no objections have been received before the proposed order is submitted to the Court for consideration.

2. All proposed orders should be typed in 12-point, Times New Roman font and in Word formatting (97-2003 preferred).

3. If a party is assigned to draft a proposed order from the hearing, it should be remitted to the court within twenty (20) days at most. This time limit provides the drafting party for 10 days to complete the draft of the proposed order and provide a copy to the opposing party for review. The reviewing party has five (5) days to review the proposed order and advise the drafter of any disagreements / objections to the proposed order. A party may not object to a proposed order because they disagree with the ruling of the Court – objections to proposed orders should be limited to insuring that the proposed order accurately reflects the Court’s ruling. If there are no disagreements, the proposed order should be converted to a .pdf format and uploaded on JAWS for entry.

4. If a reviewing party has an objection to the proposed order, they are responsible for conveying that objection to the drafting party and providing alternate proposed language for the portion of the proposed order with which they disagree within two (2) days of informing the drafting party of their objection. The parties shall cooperate to attempt to resolve the differences on the language in the order, such that if the same cannot be agreed upon within the 20 day window, the drafting party shall send an e-mail to the Judicial Assistant (copying all parties) with the words DISPUTED PROPOSED ORDER in the subject line, and should include a cover letter detailing the disputed provisions of the order (.pdf formatted) which includes the date of the hearing from which the order stems, and attach to the e-mail the Word form of the proposed order (including any language changes which have been agreed upon amongst the parties) as well as a Word form of the alternate language proposed by the objecting / reviewing party. The Court will thereafter review the proposed order and alternate language, and will revise the proposed order as the Court deems appropriate (if necessary) and will either render an ultimate order on JAWS or may issue an order on JAWS setting a Case Management Conference to resolve disputed language / order issues.

5. As detailed above, the Court DOES NOT hold orders pending objections. Do NOT call the Court or send only a letter / e-mail to the Court objecting to a proposed order. The objection must be timely remitted to the drafting party and any objection should include a statement of the specific objection and include a WORD form version of the alternate proposed language for any objectionable provision/language.

6. Proposed Orders should NOT contain blanks for the Judge to fill in – other than the date and line for the Judge’s signature.

7. Proposed orders should not be submitted to the Court which contain only DONE AND ORDERED and/or the Judge’s signature on the last page. Some part of the body of the Order shall accompany the Judge’s signature block.

8. The Judge will change any language or amounts in the proposed order that s/he does not find appropriate.

9. Do NOT send unsigned proposed Orders to the Clerk of the Court.

10. Income Deduction Orders / Income Withholding Orders should be remitted contemporaneous with the relevant Order / Final Judgment. In drafting the Income Withholding Order please be mindful that “retroactive” support is not “past due” support, and be sure to double check your math to account for the Clerk’s fees when completing the alternate payment frequencies. It is acceptable to indicate the Income Withholding Order applies to “All payors and/or employers” and then put “TBD by payor/employer” regarding all payor/employer specific information blanks on the Income Withholding Order form.

11. All “child support orders” – including Final Judgments of Dissolution of Marriage, etc., SHALL (must) include the “full name and date of birth of each minor child who is the subject of the child support order” pursuant to § 61.13(1)(d)1, Fla. Stat. Rules 2.425(b)(4), and (5), Fla. R. Jud. Admin. provides for an exception to the redaction requirements of this sensitive information which would otherwise be required to be minimized under Rule 2.425(a), Fla. R. Jud. Admin.

12. Do NOT send the same proposed order in multiple ways (e.g. do not send a copy by U.S. Mail and by e-mail and/or uploading on JAWS) as this may lead to confusion and/or entry of multiple orders addressing the same matters.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

13. If an order is to be sent to a party, or parties, via U.S. Mail, it is the responsibility of the party providing the proposed order to provide the Court with sufficient stamped, self-addressed business size envelopes for distribution. If sufficient stamped, self-addressed business size envelopes are not provided the order may be rendered to, and filed with, the Clerk without copies being distributed and counsel may obtain copies from the Clerk of the Court (at whatever expense that may cost) for distribution, as it is counsel's responsibility to ensure that all parties receive copies.

JAWS (Judicial Automated Workflow System)

ALL attorneys handling cases in this section should affiliate themselves with their cases in Section 14 on the Judicial Automated Workflow System (JAWS) AND add in the known e-mail addresses for the opposing parties (or opposing counsel if represented), as the Judge prefers (whenever possible) to render orders electronically via JAWS and the preferred method for scheduling hearings for less than one (1) hour IS through JAWS in this Section. The website is https://jawspinellas.jud6.org/jaws_attorney/login.aspx which includes links to register new user account\(s\) and instructions on how to use JAWS.

At the current time self-represented parties are not able to affiliate themselves with their cases on JAWS nor schedule hearing times through JAWS. The Circuit is working to enable such access and these preferences will be updated when that occurs.

To Schedule Hearings Less Than One (1) Hour In Length: Please select "Family Law" then the "Section 14 – Pollack" calendar to schedule your hearing. A courtesy copy of the Notice of Hearing should be sent to the Judicial Assistant at Section14@jud6.org AFTER your hearing scheduling is approved in JAWS and the notice has been e-filed with the Court and served upon all parties to the case in accordance with Rule 2.516, Fla. R. Jud. Admin.

Hearings requiring less than one (1) hour of time may be scheduled directly online. DO NOT call or e-mail the Judicial Assistant for other hearing dates/times for hearings less than one (1) hour in length unless you are invited to by the Court (such as in an Emergency Motion Handling Order), unless you are a self-represented party. Self-represented parties may contact the Judicial Assistant via e-mail to obtain dates/times to coordinate hearings as detailed separately in these preferences.

Instead, merely coordinate the hearing with all parties to the case, then reserve the agreed upon date/time from those available on JAWS (and upon approval of your selected date/time by the Judicial Assistant through JAWS, draft and file an appropriate Notice of Hearing setting the matter for hearing and noticing all parties). Blocks of time commonly available on JAWS include:

UMC (Uniform Motion Calendar) – which should be used for hearings of 5-10 minutes which either do NOT require evidentiary consideration, such as a Motion to Withdraw, proving up jurisdictional testimony for an UNContested Final Hearing, or resolving scheduling issues. Disputed/evidentiary hearings – such as a Motion to Compel should not be scheduled on the UMC docket. Cases set on a UMC docket will be a mass calendar type docket with up to 10 cases scheduled per hour.

15 minute or 30 minute blocks of time. These blocks of time may not be combined without prior approval by the Court.

It is the moving party's responsibility to confirm that all counsel/parties (if self-represented) are in the JAWS database to ensure all parties receive e-mails regarding the scheduling and cancellation of hearings. Failure to comply with this procedure can result in the cancellation of your hearing. Additional e-mail addresses for notification may be added by staff.

Orders on JAWS: Agreed upon Orders should be uploaded on JAWS in .pdf format in the Work Queue for the Judge's signature. If the form/substance of an order is not agreed upon, then it may not be uploaded on JAWS for entry by the Court. A party may not object to a proposed order because they disagree with the ruling of the Court – objections to proposed orders should be limited to insuring that the proposed order accurately reflects the Court's ruling. In order to be approved by electronic signing, the party uploading the proposed order should comply with the following:

1. Include a cover letter which expressly states that the opposing side(s) have reviewed and approved the form and substance of the proposed order OR specifying the date and manner in which the proposed order was sent to the other side(s) and certifying that the opposing side(s) failed to respond with any objections to the proposed order within five (5) days of being provided with the proposed order for review. The Court does not hold orders pending objections. Failure to include a cover letter and/or certify same in the cover letter will result in the rejection of the proposed order.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

2. All proposed orders should be remitted within 21 days of the hearing.
3. If the order is the result of a particular hearing, reference the hearing date in the order and cover letter. The Order(s) should contain NO BLANKS for the Judge to fill in other than the date and his signature and should be formatted so that there is something of substance on the page requiring the Judge's signature (and not just the DONE AND ORDERED line).
4. Income Deduction Orders should be uploaded contemporaneous with the relevant Order / Final Judgment, but must be in separate documents for the Judge's signature – so a single cover letter may cover multiple order uploads.
5. Orders approving stipulations must be uploaded with the executed stipulation attached to the proposed order in the signing queue and specifically state "attached" in the order, or the stipulation may be filed and the proposed order may simply incorporate the stipulation by reference expressly reciting the date the same was docketed in by the Clerk of the Court.
6. All "child support orders" – including Final Judgments of Dissolution of Marriage, etc., SHALL (must) include the "full name and date of birth of each minor child who is the subject of the child support order" pursuant to § 61.13(1)(d)1, Fla. Stat. As Rule 2.425(b)(4) and (5), Fla. R. Jud. Admin. each provide for exceptions to the redaction requirements of this sensitive information which would otherwise be required to be minimized under Rule 2.425(a), Fla. R. Jud. Admin., child support orders which only recite the child's initials and year of birth will be rejected.
7. All orders of withdrawal of an attorney must include the client's last known address, telephone number (including area code) and e-mail address.

Attorneys are reminded that while a self-represented party may provide an opposing counsel with an e-mail address for communication and coordination of scheduling matters, unless the self-represented party affirmatively "opts in" to the use of Service by Electronic Mail ("e-mail") pursuant to Rule 2.516(b)(1)(C), Fla. R. Jud. Admin., that certifying service of any filing with the Court (including Notices of Hearing, Motions, etc.) upon the self-represented party merely via e-mail alone will not suffice and service upon the self-represented party must be made in accordance with Rule 2.516(b)(2), Fla. R. Jud. Admin. Accordingly if the opposing party in an action is self-represented and the Attorney uploads a proposed order on JAWS for entry by the Court IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE

UPLOADING ATTORNEY TO SEND A COPY OF THE ELECTONICALLY RENDERED ORDER TO THE SELF-REPRESENTED PARTY BY REGULAR U.S. MAIL WITHIN ONE (1) BUSINESS DAY OF RENDITION OF THE ORDER unless the self-represented party has affirmatively “opted in” to the receipt of e-service in the action.

Communication With the Court

The Judicial Assistant CANNOT answer your legal questions, and will not explain your situation to the Judge. Your opportunity to speak to the Judge happens in Court only.

The preferred form of communication for setting and cancelling hearings are addressed specifically in the “Scheduling” section of these preferences.

All other communication can be made by calling our office.

Matters NOT Requiring a Hearing

Due to the highly personal and sensitive nature of Family Law proceedings, Section 14 does not allow for consideration of motions to be decided merely on written submissions as may otherwise be permitted in Civil Divisions pursuant to local Administrative Order 2015-056 PA/PI-CIR, other than Motions to Permit Telephonic Appearance as detailed below. Rather, these preferences control what matters may be addressed without need of a hearing in Family Law Division, Section 14.

A matter does not require a hearing and an order may be submitted by uploading an order on JAWS if all parties are in agreement, a stipulation has been signed, or the Court has otherwise permitted in these preferences. The Court requires that all proposed orders contain a cover letter which expressly states that the opposing side(s) have reviewed and approved the form and substance of the proposed order OR specifying the date and manner in which the proposed order was sent to the other side(s) and certifying that the opposing side(s) failed to respond with any objections to the proposed order within five (5) days of being provided with the proposed order for review OR specifying under which provision of these preferences the proposed order may be uploaded without need of same. Failure to include a cover letter and/or certify same in the cover letter will result in the rejection of the proposed order.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Some matters that do not require a hearing are as follows:

- Appointment of Special Process Server
- Stipulated Modifications
- Stipulated/Agreed Orders
- Motions for Substitution of Counsel – see below
- Motions to Withdraw (with signed consent from client)-see below

Motions to Compel Without a Hearing: A party may obtain an EX PARTE ORDER COMPELLING DISCOVERY without need of a hearing in Section 14 pursuant to local Administrative Order 2017-072 PA/PI-CIR when (1) a Motion to Compel alleges a complete failure to respond or object to discovery, (2) there has been no request for an extension, (3) the motion alleges that the movant has conferred with the opposing party (or counsel if represented) and has been unable to resolve the dispute. No fees or other sanctions may be sought in the ex parte motion nor granted in the ex parte order. The ex parte order may be entered requiring compliance with the original discovery demand within ten (10) days of the signing of the order. Please remember to adhere to the instructions set forth above for uploading proposed orders on JAWS – particularly if one party is not represented by an attorney.

Motions to Permit Telephonic Appearance: No motion, nor order, is necessary for counsel to appear for a non-evidentiary hearing of 15 minutes or less, as detailed in “Motion Practice - Generally: Telephonic Appearances for Non-Evidentiary Hearings of 15 minutes or less” below.

If the parties agree, the Court will allow a party or witness to appear for a proceeding and testify via telephone, pursuant to Rule 2.530(d)(1), Fla. R. Jud. Admin., also without need of the filing of a motion, or rendition of an order permitting same.

In absence of an agreement, the party or witness seeking to appear by telephone must comply with the requirements of Rule 12.451, Fla. Fam. L. R. P. (including statements as to the good cause to permit the telephonic appearance, the substance of the proposed testimony, and an estimate of the length of the proposed testimony) by filing an appropriate motion for the Court’s consideration, and the Court may consider same without need of any hearing if the motion notifies the Court and all parties of the request for consideration upon written submission without need of hearing upon same and complies with the requirements of local Administrative Order 2015-056 PA/PI-CIR by including any legal argument the movant wants the Court to consider. The opposing party/counsel shall have ten (10) days after being served to file their response, argument and legal memorandum with citations of authority in opposition to the requested telephonic appearance. Following the expiration of this ten (10) day period, the Court may rule at any time without further notice or hearing. Interested parties may notify the Court the matter is ripe for decision and request a ruling by an e-mail to Section14@jud6.org (copying all parties) which identifies the date the motion was filed, the expiration of the 10 day window, and including a simple proposed form order for the Judge to indicate if the motion is: (1) granted; (2) denied; or (3) set for hearing by the Court to permit further argument before the Court's ruling upon the motion.

Substitution of Counsel: A proposed Order of Substitution of Counsel may be uploaded for entry on JAWS as set forth above, provided there is an accompanying stipulation including the client's WRITTEN consent as required by Rule 2.505(e)(2), Fla. R. Jud. Admin. Proposed orders approving stipulations for substitution of counsel without the written consent of the client will be rejected by the Court.

Withdrawal of Counsel: A proposed Order Granting Motion to Withdraw may be uploaded for entry on JAWS without need of a hearing, so long as written consent by the client is provided and there is no objection to the withdrawal from the opposing party (or counsel if represented). In order for the Court to be able to enter same, the Motion to Withdraw must contain (or attach as an exhibit) the consent from the client, certification of the confirmation of the opposing party's non-objection to the withdrawal and be in compliance with Rule 2.505(f)(1), Fla. R. Jud. Admin. by setting forth the reason for the withdrawal and the client's last known address, telephone number, including area code, and e-mail address. The proposed Order Granting Motion to Withdraw shall not specify any abatement of activity in the case, however it shall (must) recite the client's full contact information as set forth in the motion – and the uploading attorney must affiliate the client's e-mail address with the case on JAWS prior to uploading the proposed order for entry.

Motion Practice – Generally

Courtesy Copies of Documents: The Court has access to an electronic record. The Clerk does not maintain a paper file. Please submit courtesy copies of Notices of Hearing and Notices of Cancellation of Hearing to the Court via e-mail to the Judicial Assistant at Section14@jud6.org. No other documents that have been e-filed (Pre-Trial Memorandum etc.) need to be copied to the Court, unless specifically requested by the Judge. Please remember: if a hearing has been scheduled by a party it may be cancelled only by that party or the Court; if a hearing has been scheduled by the Court it may only be cancelled by order of the Court.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Cross Noticing / Piggybacking: Cross-Noticing a motion upon another party's time is STRICTLY PROHIBITED. If you cross notice, your motion will not be heard, unless agreed to by the court and opposing party and time permits. Additional time will not be permitted to address a cross-noticed/piggybacked motion during a previously scheduled hearing time block and the cross-noticed/piggybacked motion will be required to be set for a separate hearing.

Notices of Hearing: All notices of hearing should include a statement indicating the date, time and method of how each party (regardless of if represented by counsel or self-represented) agreed to the scheduling of the hearing and should certify service upon all parties in accordance with Rule 2.516, Fla. R. Jud. Admin.

Due process is a primary concern in all proceedings. In scheduling hearings, the parties are reminded that often a case involves more than two (2) parties – such as when the Florida Department of Revenue is involved, a corporation is involved, or a Guardian Ad Litem has been appointed in the case. Any hearing - unless that party has filed a Notice of Non Participation (or similar filing) in the proceeding regarding the matter being set for hearing - is required to be coordinated with all parties, not just the Petitioner and Respondent, and failure to coordinate the hearing with all parties and notice all parties for the hearing may result in the hearing being cancelled or the Court declining to hear the matter at the date/time scheduled for hearing, absent good cause.

Please submit courtesy copies of Notices of Hearing and Notices of Cancellation of Hearing to the Court via e-mail to the Judicial Assistant at Section14@jud6.org AFTER the notice is filed with the Clerk and served upon all parties in accordance with Rule 2.516, Fla. R. Jud. Admin.

Telephonic Appearances for Non-Evidentiary Hearings of 15 minutes or less: Pursuant to Rule 2.530(c), Fla. R. Jud. Admin., attorneys are allowed to appear telephonically for any non-evidentiary hearing less than 15 minutes in length without prior leave of Court. The Notice of Hearing must indicate the attorney's intent to appear by phone and provide the telephone number for the Court to call at the time of the hearing. If multiple hearings are scheduled at the same time (such as on a block UMC docket), the Court will address the parties whom are present in Court first and the telephonic hearing(s) last, so the Court may not call at the exact time the hearing is scheduled. If multiple parties need to appear from various locations by telephone, the scheduling attorney must arrange a conference call and provide the relevant information for participation in the call to the Court and all parties by reciting same in the Notice of Hearing. If a non-scheduling attorney wishes to appear by phone and the same is not coordinated in advance with the scheduling attorney, s/he must contact the Judicial Assistant at least three (3) days prior to the hearing.

Telephonic Appearances for Evidentiary Hearings: If the parties agree, the Court will allow a party or witness to appear for a proceeding and testify via telephone, pursuant to Rule 2.530(d)(1), Fla. R. Jud. Admin. In absence of an agreement, the party or witness seeking to appear by telephone must comply with the requirements of Rule 12.451, Fla. Fam. L. R. P. by filing an appropriate motion for the Court's consideration. Motions to Permit Telephonic Appearance may be sought upon written submission, without need of a hearing, as set forth separately in these preferences.

As a general rule the Section 14 Judge is inclined to permit a party or witness to appear in such a virtual fashion if (1) the hearing is brief in nature, (2) the party/witness would be required to travel more than 50 miles to attend the hearing, (3) and the hearing is not one seeking to hold the party/witness in contempt for non-compliance with a prior order of the Court, and (4) there is not good cause why the party or witness should appear in person.

If a party/witness is permitted to appear by phone, the party/witness must have a notary public, or other person authorized to administer an oath in the jurisdiction where the party/witness will physically be, with them at the start of the hearing in order to swear in that party/witness consistent with the laws of that jurisdiction, in accordance with Rule 12.451(d), Fla. Fam. L. R. P.

Scheduling

Due process is a primary concern in all proceedings. In scheduling hearings, regardless of how the hearing is set, the parties are reminded that often a case involves more than two (2) parties – such as when the Florida Department of Revenue is involved, or if a Guardian Ad Litem has been appointed in the case. Any hearings (unless that party has filed a Notice of Non Participation in the proceeding) is required to be coordinated with that party as well as the principals to the action, and failure to coordinate the hearing with all parties and notice all parties for the hearing may result in the hearing being cancelled or the Court declining to hear the matter at the date/time scheduled for hearing, absent good cause.

Attorneys – For Hearings Less Than One (1) Hour in Length: Please see the instructions in these preferences under JAWS - To Schedule Hearings Less Than One (1) Hour in Length for information on how to schedule any hearing less than one (1) hour in length.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Attorneys – For Hearings One (1) Hour or Longer: Coordination of hearings of one (1) hour or greater is by e-mail to section14@jud6.org. The following should be included in the email: case number, what you want to set, how long you will need, and who you represent.

E-mails seeking hearing times should copy all parties (or their counsel if represented) to prevent any concerns of ex parte communication. The Judicial Assistant will respond with at least five (5) dates/times for consideration within 72 hours of receipt of the e-mail and the party seeking the hearing will be responsible for confirming the selection of dates amongst the parties and responding back to the Judicial Assistant as which two (2) of the dates/times are selected or if alternate dates/times are needed (again copying all parties) and the Judicial Assistant will “reply all” to that e-mail either confirming the docketed date and time or providing additional dates/times for consideration. Please do not send a follow up e-mail seeking the dates/times prior to the expiration of the 72 hour window, as doing so may cause your request to be “moved to the back of the line” in the handling of the request and delay the time in which dates/times are provided to your request. The parties should not engage in any “cross-talk” in e-mails which the Judicial Assistant is copied on.

If the parties are unable to agree upon a date/time for the hearing exceeding one (1) hour in length, they shall schedule a hearing on the earliest available UMC docket for the Court to resolve the scheduling dispute and the attorneys may appear for the Scheduling Hearing/Case Management Conference via telephone to facilitate the scheduling of the case for hearing.

Self-Represented Parties: Self-represented parties seeking to schedule any hearings, regardless of length, should follow the procedures set forth in the “Attorneys – For Hearings One (1) Hour or Longer” section above.

Specific Motions & Hearings

Adoptions / Name Changes: Adoption files and Name Changes are reviewed by the Court’s Staff Attorney prior to any final hearings being scheduled. If you believe your case is ready to set for final hearing, e-mail Section14@jud6.org with the case number so that we may verify the status with the Staff Attorney. You will be notified by the Staff Attorney if additional documentation is needed; or you will be notified by e-mail from the Judicial Assistant with dates/times available for a final hearing. All final hearings on adoptions MUST have a court reporter present. The Court does not provide a court reporter for the proceedings. A list of Court approved court reporters can be found on the left side of the www.jud6.org website under “Court Reporting” or through the following link: Court

Attorney's Fees: Prior to any attorney's fee hearing, the attorneys should exchange affidavits outlining the reasonable number of hours requested and the reasonable hourly fee. They should also make arrangements to meet prior to the hearing to discuss resolution and allow each other to talk with opposing experts (if applicable). Fee affidavits are sufficient in lieu of expert testimony IF all parties agree to their use. All fee awards must meet the requirement of Florida Patients' Compensation Funds v. Rowe, 472 So.2d 1145 (Fla. 1985).

In trials, the Court usually reserves on the issues of both entitlement and amount. Be prepared to have final fee matters referred to mediation following the trial on the merits of the balance of the petition(s). For Attorney's Fees / Costs requests exceeding $50,000.00, or upon request of a party or upon the Court's initiative in requests below that threshold, upon scheduling a hearing upon a party's Motion for Award of Attorney's Fees and Taxation of Costs, the Court will enter an Order Setting Final Evidentiary Hearing On Attorney's Fees and Costs; Referring Parties to Mediation on Amount of Fees & Costs; and Establishing Pre-Hearing Requirements setting forth detailed requirements for the consideration of the motion.

Case Management Conferences: Case Management Conferences are encouraged by the Court as a mechanism for differentiated handling of individual cases. The Court may set Case Management Conferences on its own, or at the request of a party, to address matters as set forth in Rule 12.200, Fla. Fam. L. R. P.

Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties in advance, the individual parties are expected to attend the first Case Management Conference in their case in person.

If the parties are in agreement with the need for a Case Management Conference, a party may schedule and coordinate a 15 minute Case Management Conference on JAWS without need of the filing of a motion seeking same.

In a Dissolution of Marriage action, at a Case Management Conference, upon request of a party, or upon the Court's own initiative, the jurisdictional testimony may be elicited and an order confirming the jurisdiction of the Court may be entered.

Emergency Motions: All Emergency Motions must be filed with the Clerk of Court prior to the Court determining emergency status. It is a good idea to provide the Court with a copy of the motion by e-mail (with the word EMERGENCY included in the subject line) AFTER it has been filed with the Clerk of Court, as the Court does not receive motions through the Portal when you check “emergency” and the Clerk does NOT provide copies of all emergency motions to the Court for review upon filing, so if an emergency motion is merely e-filed, the Court will likely not be aware of the filing.

The Court strives to enter an Emergency Motion Handling Order within 24 hours (or 1 business day) of receipt of the Emergency Motion which may: enter an order granting the requested relief without notice and setting a return hearing; set an emergency or expedited hearing upon the motion; set an expedited Case Management Conference; allow a hearing to be set and direct the moving party to contact the Judicial Assistant for available dates/times; direct a party to file a written response; deem the matter not an emergency, to be handled in the regular course of business; or take other appropriate action – including admonishing or sanctioning a moving party for improper use and/or abuse of the emergency motion process.

Parties and/or Counsel seeking emergency relief are expected to read, review and be familiar with Smith v. Crider, 932 So.2d 393 (Fla. 2nd DCA, 2006), Loudermilk v. Loudermilk, 683 So.2d 666 (Fla. 2nd DCA, 2007) and Rule 12.605, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure, prior to the filing of any request for emergency, expedited and/or ex parte relief.

Motion for Civil Contempt/Enforcement (of support): If the only matter pending before the Court is an action seeking to enforce a previously ordered support obligation, the parties do NOT need to attend mediation prior to scheduling a hearing upon the Motion for Civil Contempt/Enforcement. However, if a party has a pending Supplemental Petition to Modify the support obligation which is actively litigated (filed, served, on-going discovery), and a Motion for Civil Contempt/Enforcement regarding the support obligation is subsequently filed by the party opposing the modification of support, the hearing upon the Motion for Civil Contempt/Enforcement (of support) will be deferred and heard at the same time as the final hearing on the Supplemental Petition to Modify, absent exceptional circumstances, and the parties shall therefore mediate both issues at the same time prior to hearing.

The Notice of Hearing setting the Motion for Civil Contempt/Enforcement of the support obligation must contain the language required in, and otherwise fully comply with, Rule 12.615, Fla. Fam. L. R. P. if the enforcing party is seeking to invoke the contempt powers of the Court and potentially have the alleged contemnor incarcerated for his/her failure to appear at the hearing and/or his/her failure to pay the previously ordered support obligation - and the alleged contemnor must be given notice of the hearing reasonably calculated to apprise him/her of the pendency of the proceedings.

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Motion to Compel Discovery: A party may seek an ex parte order compelling production of overdue discovery, without seeking any fees or other sanctions, and without need of any hearing upon the motion, provided the motion is sought in accordance with local Administrative Order 2017-072 PA/PI-CIR as set forth in these preferences under “Matters NOT Requiring a Hearing”.

If the motion does not qualify for ex parte consideration (if there has been partial compliance or the movant is seeking fees, etc.), then the party seeking the discovery should file a Motion to Compel Discovery (or similarly titled motion) pursuant to (and in compliance with) Rule 12.380(a)(2), Fla. Fam. L. R. P., and set the same for hearing before the Court – only after making a good faith effort to obtain the delinquent discovery without the need of Court intervention.

Motion to Withdraw: If a client, or opposing party, objects to the withdrawal of an attorney, the Motion to Withdraw should be set for hearing during a UMC docket or 15 minute hearing time on the Judge’s calendar through JAWS. The motion, and the notice setting hearing, must certify service upon the client via regular U.S. Mail (in addition to any e-mail copy provided to the client), and the motion must comply with the provisions Rule 2.505(f)(1), Fla. R. Jud. Admin. by setting forth the reason for the withdrawal and the client’s last known address, telephone number, including area code, and e-mail address. The proposed Order Granting Motion to Withdraw shall not specify any abatement of activity in the case, however it shall (must) recite the client’s full contact information as set forth in the motion.

Relocation: Pursuant to § 61.13001(10), Fla. Stat., the Court affords special accommodation to schedule hearings on relocation requests – both temporary and final – on an expedited basis provided the moving party has complied with all other requirements for seeking relief INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION THE REQUIREMENT TO SCHEDULE AND ATTEND MEDIATION PRIOR TO SEEKING HEARING TIME WITH THE COURT. The failure of a party to abide by the strict requirements of the statute, as well as the requirements of the local Administrative Orders and the Practice Preferences of this section SHALL be deemed a waiver of any specific time requirements of the Statute.

If a party is seeking to invoke the statutory provision entitling him/her to an expedited hearing upon the temporary relocation request, then immediately upon the filing of the Motion for Temporary Order Granting Relocation with the Clerk of the Court, the moving party shall also file a Motion for Referral to Mediation with the Clerk of the Court, along with an Affidavit for Establishing Mediation Fees and must provide a copy of both motions to the Judge's Judicial Assistant via e-mail to Section14@jud6.org with EXPED RELO RQST-TEMP in the subject line. Upon receipt of same the Court will render (by JAWS) an Order Referring the Parties to Mediation and Scheduling a Case Management Conference. The scheduling of the hearing upon the Motion for Temporary Order Granting Relocation will be coordinated at the Case Management Conference. It should be understood that the Court will do its best to accommodate the 30-day provision from date of filing in the Statute if the moving party fully complies with the requirements herein, but circumstances beyond the Court's control (such as when or how a party effects initial service of process upon the opposing party, Court holidays, hurricanes, etc.) may impact the ability to strictly comply with same.

If a party is seeking to invoke the statutory provision entitling him/her to an expedited final hearing upon the Petition to Permit Relocation With Minor Child(ren), then immediately upon the filing of the Notice For Trial (certifying that the pursuant to Rule 12.440, Fla. Fam. L. R. P. the matter is ripe for and ready to be set for trial), the moving party must provide a copy of the Notice to the Judge's Judicial Assistant via e-mail to Section14@jud6.org with EXPED RELO-FINAL RQST in the subject line. Upon receipt of same the Court will render (by JAWS) an Order Scheduling a Case Management Conference, and the Court will manage the scheduling of the case in accordance with Rule 12.200, Fla. Fam. L. R. P. and scheduling a Pre-Trial Conference at the Case Management Conference.

Temporary Relief: For temporary relief matters, ALL temporary motions (i.e. custody, visitation, support, etc.) must be mediated prior to a hearing being held. Once mediation is scheduled, the moving party may schedule a one (1) hour hearing for temporary relief matters to be heard within two (2) weeks following the scheduled mediation and upon scheduling same, and confirmation of the scheduled hearing by the Judicial Assistant, the Court will enter an order setting the temporary relief hearing with additional terms regarding same – including a provision preventing any party from cancelling the scheduled mediation without obtaining an order from the Court permitting same. Hearing time on the court's calendar on temporary matters will not be reserved until mediation has been scheduled. Temp hearings should not exceed one (1) hour except under extraordinary circumstances. To expedite hearing, proffers are strongly encouraged.

Uncontested Final Hearings: An uncontested Final Hearing may be scheduled either on the Court's UMC docket or on any 15 minute hearing time on JAWS. Prior to scheduling an uncontested Final Hearing, the moving party should insure that the following items have been filed with the Clerk of the Court:

JUDICIAL PRACTICE PREFERENCES FOR FAMILY LAW DIVISION SECTION 14

Dissolution of Marriage without children: Financial Affidavit(s) – if financial relief is being granted by the Court; Marital Settlement Agreement.

Dissolution of Marriage with minor children: UCCJEA Affidavit(s); Social Security Number Affidavit(s); Marital Settlement Agreement: Parenting Plan executed by both parties; Certificates of completing Parenting Course by each parent; Financial Affidavit(s); Child Support Guideline Worksheet

Paternity actions: UCCJEA Affidavit(s); Social Security Number Affidavit(s); Parenting Plan executed by both parties; Certificates of completing Parenting Class by each Parent; Financial Affidavit(s); Child Support Guideline Worksheet

Pre-Trial Conferences

A Pre-Trial Conference will be required for any Final Hearing by Non-Jury Trial which is expected to take three (3) hours or more of the Court’s time. In most cases a Case Management Conference is necessary to set a Pre-Trial Conference as the Court will enter an Order Setting Pre-Trial Conference which requires the parties to draft and file an appropriate Pre-Trial Memorandum – including exhibits such as a proposed Equitable Distribution Worksheet, Proposed Parenting Plan, Proposed Child Support Guidelines, Witness List, Exhibit List, and other documents - in advance of the Pre-Trial Conference. Accordingly, it is recommended that a party schedule a Case Management Conference pursuant to Rule 12.200, Fla. Fam. L. R. P. after they have filed their Notice for Trial pursuant to Rule 12.440, Fla. Fam. L. R. P. in order to facilitate same.

Pre-Trial Conferences are scheduled for thirty (30) minutes and no motions will be heard at the Pre-Trial Conference without prior approval of the Court. The attorney conducting the trial must attend the Pre-Trial Conference in person, not by telephone. The parties must also attend the Pre-Trial Conference. It is assumed that at a Pre-Trial Conference the case is ready to be tried, there are no pending motions, and all (or virtually all) discovery is completed so the Court may impose discovery deadlines and schedule the Final Hearing by Non-Jury Trial at the Pre-Trial Conference, so the parties and counsel must bring their calendars to the Pre-Trial Conference.

Trials

Courtroom Trials: For trials in a Courtroom, parties/counsel should:

- (1) Request Permission to approach the bench or the to approach the witness; and
- (2) Stand when making objections; and
- (3) Stand when speaking unless the Court allows otherwise; and
- (4) Do not address opposing counsel, witnesses, or parties by their first name or nickname.

In-Chambers Trials: For trials conducted in chambers, parties/counsel should:

- (1) Sit as directed by the bailiff – typically with the attorney in the seat closest to the Judge, the party in the middle chair, and any witness testifying will be sat at the end of the table.
- (2) Remain seated throughout the hearing, including when making objections.

In General:

- (1) Do not engage in arguments or disputes with opposing counsel, parties, or witnesses; and
- (2) All argument is to be directed to the court and not to opposing counsel; and
- (3) Strive NOT to make “speaking objections.” Announce your “Objection” and provide the basis for your objection upon request from the Court (which should be able to be done in five (5) words or less). The Court will afford the opposing party the opportunity to respond to the objection (if appropriate) and if the Court feels it is necessary, additional argument will be solicited from either side prior to ruling upon the objection.
- (4) ALL evidence is to be copied and exchanged in accordance with the deadlines set forth in the Order Setting Pre-Trial and/or Order Setting Final Hearing by Non-Jury Trial, unless the attorneys/self-represented parties stipulate otherwise. ALL evidence is to be pre-marked in advance of its intended use, with “sensitive information” redacted in accordance with Rule 2.425, Fla. R. Jud. Admin.
- (5) The court will mark exhibits as received into evidence.
- (6) For tangible evidence, show the evidence to opposing counsel before showing the evidence to the Court or to the witness.
